SCSO Makes Arrest in Burglary of Business, Theft Case

On May 18th just before 4:00am, the Chow Time restaurant located on the 4200 block of Hacks Cross Road was burglarized. Video surveillance showed a silver Pontiac G6 drive past the front door and park on the other side of the parking lot.

It also shows a man wearing a light colored hooded sweat suit approaching the building.

He then breaks through a window entering the business, and leaves with one cash drawer and two change machines valued at over $600.00.

Sheriff's detectives also found additional property damage to the building and other property including a cash register, TV brackets, computer and the carpet.

According to the business, the estimated loss was over $6200.00 dollars. The Construction manager recognized the individual in the video and later in a photo lineup as Jeremy Odom, 22, a current employee of the restaurant. A warrant was issued for his arrest and Odom turned himself in this morning to our Fugitive unit. He is in custody charged with Burglary of a Business, Theft of Property $1000-$10,000 and Vandalism $1000-$10,000.
